WEATHER PROBABILITIES .- War Depart ment, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., June 19, 1877-10:30 a. m.-For the Middle Atlantic States rising barometer, stationary or lower temperature, southwest to northwest winds and partly cloudy weather with occasional showers.

THE COMMITTEE to enquire into the difficulties in the Second Presbyterian Church, culminating in charges against the pastor, Rev. Mr. Dinwiddie and Elder Witmer by Elder Ramsay, met last night in the basement of the church, Rev. Mr. Cannon, of Leesburg, chairman, and all the committee present. Mr. Ramsay submitted his statement, which was replied to by Mr. Dinwiddie. The session lasted until a very late hour, and the investigation was resumed this morning, when Mr. Witmer appeared before the committee and made his statement. Witnesses were examined this afternoon, and the committee, it is thought, will not get through its work before to morrow. The meciings are strictly private, and the charges and will be presented to the Presbytery when it reassembles next Thursday night.

DEATH OF AN OLD UITIZEN. - Capt. Samuel Baker, an old and respected citizen of this city, died at his residence on south Fairfax street, fist night. Capt. Baker was born at Dennis, Mass., and was in the 69th year of his age. He came to this city in 1856 as commander of the steamer Alice Price, and was subsequently exptain of the Thomas Collyer and other river boats. For several years he held the position of Inspector of Customs at this port, and discharged the duties thereof very satisfactorily to all who had business with the Custom House. He resigned this position some two years since, and had been engaged since then in the wood and coal business. Capt. Baker's health had been failing for some time back, and his death may be ascribed to the general wearing out of EXCURSION LAST NIGHT .- The moonlight excursion of the officers of the steamer City of Alexandria, to Marshall Hall, last night, was a decided success. The company which attended was a most agreeable one, and not a single unpleasant incident occurred to mar the festivities of the evening. The boat returned to this city about four o'clock this morning, all on board being delighted with their trip.

of Loudous, arrived here this evening en route for Richmond, having in charge the negro boy U. S. Grant, who was sentenced to the penitentiary at the late term of court there for arson. The boy is apparently not more than fourteen years old, but is said to have a mania for incendiarism.

SELLING LIQUOR TO MINORS, -A greery keeper named Marshall was before Justice Thompson, this morning, charged by George Brent with selling liquor to John Jeffries, his stepson and a minor. The latter is a well grown young man, and the evidence developed no culpability on the part of the dealer, so he was LIERARY EXCURSION. - The Alexandria Library Company will give a moonlight excursion to Marshall Hall on the 29th instant. The steamer City of Alexandria has been engaged, and the excursion under the direction of the energetic committee of arrangements will no doubt prove a grand success.
